A maniacal research scientist uses a frightening advanced technology to launch domestic terrorist attacks on an unsuspecting city. A minister-turned-police detective must dig into the scriptures, ancient writings, as well as his own past in order to discover the suspect's identity and motives. It is a personal grudge match propelled by historic documents and modern technology as the pursuer and pursued engage in a tense, high-stakes cat-and-mouse game. Once he makes a vital connection, the detective is able to predict what The Balaam Surrogate will do next. But can he intervene before the scientist launches a final lethal attack? Ken Reamy is an evangelist, a former pastor, and former newsman. He is a contributing columnist for the Trinidad Times-Independent, and the Raton Range in Raton, New Mexico. He is also the author of In the Crosshairs of Deception. He lives in Trinidad, Colorado with his wife Carol. They have four children and three grandchildren. Culled from 7,500 columns and spanning four decades, the writings in this collection reflect a radically changing America as seen by a man whose keen sense of justice and humor never faltered. 11 halftones. Popular Science gives our readers the information and tools to improve their technology and their world. The core belief that Popular Science and our readers share: The future is going to be better, and science and technology are the driving forces that will help make it better. For the first time in one volume, Phil Edmonston, Canada's automotive "Dr. Phil," covers all used vehicles, packing this guide with insider tips to help the consumer make the safest and cheapest choice possible from cars and trucks of the past 25 years.
